PRESIDENT PRAYS U. S. WILL DO ITS PART TO STOP WAR

If War Comes Again Every Resource Will be Drafted

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 30.—Standing in Arlington Memorial Amphitheater and facing the wooded slopes where rest thousands of the war heroes of the nation, President Harding today uttered a prayer that the United States "do its full part toward making war unlikely if not impossible."
"We have already proven that we can have less of armament," the president declared. "Let us strive for the assurance that we shall have no more of war."

Scarcely had the applause from the assembled in the great national cemetery for the annual Memorial Day exercises died away when the chief executive coupled with his prayer the hope that should war again come to America "we will not alone call to service the youth of the land—but we will draft every resource, every activity, all of wealth and make common cause of the nation's preservation."

Several minutes passed before the applause which greeted this pronouncement allowed Mr. Harding to continue and then he asserted:
"It will be a more grateful nation which consecrates all to a common cause, and there will be more to share the gratitude bestowed; more there will be a finer conscience in our war commitments and that sublimity of spirit which makes a people invincible."

The prayer and the hope were the high points in the president's address. The president was accompanied to Arlington by Mrs. Harding, who sat in a box to his left during the exercises. Gathered in the marble amphitheater were a scattering of survivors of the Civil War, hundreds of veterans of the war with Spain and many more of those who participated in the world including their commander in chief, General Pershing.

The setting was an impressive one. The amphitheater was draped in flags and the hills of Arlington under an overcast sky were in the deep green of spring. Just outside the Amphitheater the tomb of the "Unknown Soldier" was buried beneath a mound of flowers and the president before returning to the white house placed a wreath upon it and stood for a minute at salute.

Mrs. Harding Plans Elm
Mrs. Harding visited the cemetery an hour before the exercises in the amphitheater and at services held under the auspices of the disabled American Veterans assisted in the planting of an American elm. At the request of Mrs. Harding no advance notice had been given of this ceremony and only a few were present.

The president in voicing the prayer that the United States do its part to make war impossible recalled how two years ago he had stood "at Hoboken. Pier among five thousand dead in their flag draped coffins."

There "was death in war's unheeding allotment corridors of sorrow and sacrifice so far as the eye could see, and grief that no human soul could appraise."
He said and added:
"And under the spell of the great sorrow which gripped my heart I said then and repeat now 'It Must Not Be Again.' It must not be again."

Amplifying the prayer with devotion which many interpreted as referring to the proposed American membership in the world court he said:
"I believe it to be a God-given duty to give of our influence to establish the ways of peace throughout the world. We cannot guarantee, but we can promote the peaceful adjustment of disputes we can aid the establishment of the agencies of peace, we can be influential in committing the world to the triumphs of peace and make hateful to human-kind the spoils of war."

DRAMATIC MAN HUNT ENDS IN DEATH OF FUGITIVE MANKILLER

Kills Two of Posse and Wounds One Before His Death

(By The Associated Press)
NORTH BAY, ONTARIO, May 30.—Leo Rogers, fugitive man-killer was shot and killed by a posse tonight. The escaped desperado emerged from the bush about eight miles from Nipissing late this afternoon long enough to be brought down by a bullet from a member of the inspector Storey's party, which with several other groups had been hunting Rogers since his escape from a crowded court room with a flourish of a cardboard pistol.

The killing of Rogers came as the climax to one of the most dramatic man hunts this territory has ever experienced.
"Bad Leo" brought down two of his pursuers and wounded another before he himself was dropped by a bullet. He shot Detective Fred Lefebvre shortly after his sensational escape and today sent a bullet thru the heart of Sergeant John Urquhart, of the provincial police, a member of the party that surprised the gunman in his father's home.

OLD TRANSPORT STARTS ALASKA SERVICE AGAIN

Bufoed Leaves San Francisco for the Far North
(By The Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., May 30.—The old Transport Bufoed, refitted into a passenger and cargo carrier, steamed from San Francisco today to re-establish a service that the western rim of the continent has not known since the subsistence of the gold rush to Alaska.

Commanded by Captain L. L. Lane, known as a leading Arctic navigator, the Bufoed "left out" with 175 first class, and 200 third class passengers and 4,000 tons of freight. She is under charter of the Alaska-Siberian Navigation company of this city.

The Bufoed is starting anew the passenger carrying service between San Francisco and Alaska without change, the same service that the Alaska Argonauts knew 25 years ago.

The ports of call are Seattle, Nome, St. Michael, the old gold port of Golovin and other points on the pathway of the Alaskan pioneers.

TIMBER LAND IS THREATENED BY FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
TORONTO, May 30.—Fire sweeping millions of dollars worth of timber land, threatened the destruction of White River and Chapeau, a dispatch received here tonight said.

Timber and railway interests the message said were preparing emergency action to prevent the spread of the fire which already has destroyed enough forest to effect the district's pulp and paper mills.

ONLY A DOG, BUT HE PROVES FAITHFUL

(By The Associated Press)
CHICO, Calif., May 30.—Dog's most faithful friend—the dog—played an heroic role early this morning when flames gutted the upper story of the Hallam House, one of Chico's landmarks. Mrs. Marion Robbottine, proprietress of the hotel, and six other occupants, owe their lives to Trixie, pet fire-fighter, who aroused his mistress barely in time for her to warn the guests.

EMBLEMS OF FRANCE WERE ENTWINED IN THOSE OF AMERICA

Nation Pays Homage to Soldiers Who Lie Overseas

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, May 30.—The emblems of France and America were entwined today as the nation honored the soldiers who lie in the soil of the land in which they fell during the great war. Whether sleeping their last sleep in the burial grounds of Northern France, surrounded by shell-torn fields, or resting in the luxuriant garden of roses called Suesnes Cemetery on the slopes of Mount Verlehen, overlooking Paris, not one of the khaki clad lads who gave up their lives in France was forgotten.

Flowers bloom tonight over the mortal remains after the prayers said for the repose of their souls. Premier Poincare's head was bowed in tribute to the American dead at the dedication of a battle memorial in the American church of the Holy Trinity here and the eyes of Marshall Fayolle, were dimmed with tears as he eulogized his former "doughboys" during the services in Suesnes Cemetery. At all the cemeteries in which American dead are buried—Memorial Day exercises also were held.

Standing on a little mound in Suesnes Cemetery between the two plain wooden crosses which mark the graves of Howard Burdard Lines of the American field service and Barton Morrison of the American Red Cross, Marshall Fayolle with suppressed emotion paid tribute "to the brave American boys who reposed with in sight of the city they assisted in keeping outside the reaches of the enemy."

Following the old soldier of France, Myton T. Herrick, the American ambassador paid tribute of America to her fallen sons.

CLARA PHILLIPS ON WAY TO PRISON

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, La., May 30.—Clara Phillips, in charge of two California officers left New Orleans at noon today aboard the Southern Pacific's Sunset Limited for San Quentin penitentiary to begin serving a sentence of from ten years to life for the murder last summer near Los Angeles of Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

Mrs. Phillips was not told until a short while before her departure that her appeal for a new trial had been denied. She received the news without emotion in her cell in Parish prison where she was placed yesterday on her arrival from Honduras.

A great crowd gathered at the railroad station in the hope of getting a glimpse of the convicted hammer slayer.

In the party with Mrs. Phillips were Eugene Biscailuz, under-sheriff of Los Angeles and Walter Hunter, deputy sheriff who had her in charge; Mrs. Biscailuz, wife of the under-sheriff and Etta Mae Jackson, sister of Mrs. Phillips.

The first scheduled stop of the train on which the party is traveling is Houston, Texas.

FIRING SQUADS' BULLETS CUT WIRES

(By The Associated Press)
MARTINEZ, Cal., May 30.—A horse was killed, a grass fire started and more than 1,000 lives endangered here today when a firing squad using ball ammunition fired over the graves of the soldier dead in a Memorial Day ceremony and cut down two electric power wires, each carrying 11,000 volts.

Memorial Speaker In Bad With Audience

(By The Associated Press)
WESTFIELD, N. J., May 30.—An audience of trimly uniformed backs received the major portion of the principal memorial day address today after the speaker, the Rev. E. I. Stearns, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Caldwell, N. J., had asserted that the "United States could well imitate Germany in a righteous disarmament."

His address concluded, the speaker returned home unaware that the men and women who had invited him to speak had held an indignation meeting and adopted resolutions branding his utterances as pro-German and un-American. It was signed by Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish-American War veterans, Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, American Legion and Red Cross members, various women's auxiliaries and police and city officials of Westfield.

The minister later informed of the effect of his words said his audience must have misunderstood him. A high wind blew his words about, he said, obscuring part of his speech.

"I tried to show that the fact that there is a Memorial Day is not a good thing," he explained. "We ought to end all wars so that Memorial Day will no longer be necessary."

The utterances which caused the large audience of men and women, most of them in uniform to turn their backs to the speaker thru the major part of his talk were:
"Relieved of the burden of militarism, Germany is accelerating reconstruction apparently more rapidly than any other nation."

"In years gone by teachers and preachers took their theology from Germany. Business men formerly considered the stamp 'Made in Germany' was a mark of efficiency."

"We imitated Germany in the past. Could we not imitate her in a righteous disarmament?"

ALLEGED PLOT TO RELEASE LIQUOR IS BEING PROBED

Getting Whiskey Thru Bogus Withdrawal Permits
(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—Investigation of the alleged plot to release thousands of gallons of liquor from federal warehouses thru bogus withdrawal permits said by prohibition officials to have been uncovered with the arrest of Attorney John K. Monahan, a former prohibition office employee already has caused the suspension of six employees, several of them girls, and may reach "higher ups" according to Assistant District Attorney Joseph J. Merensky.

One woman employee has confessed that she received money from Monahan to withdraw the permits, supposedly made out to church and charity institutions, from the mails and hand them to Monahan who presented them in person at the warehouse and took out the liquor, Merensky said.

She was introduced to Monahan by a former congressman, Merensky said the woman stated in her confession. Three girls in the office, according to Merensky, were given $105 each to obtain the slips and hand them to Monahan.

Monahan now is held under $2500 bond by United States Commissioner James R. Glass who set his hearing for June 5.

LEUTENANT OF DAUGHERTY DEAD

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 30.—Jesse W. Smith, well known in the inner circle of official Washington as the intimate associate and trusted political lieutenant of Attorney General Daugherty, shot and killed himself today in the hotel apartment occupied by him and the attorney general in common for the past two years.

The dead man left behind no word of explanation, but his friends expressed the belief that it was worry over ill health which led him to end his life. For some time he had suffered from a kidney disorder. Attorney General Daugherty spent last night at the white house, and when he learned of his friend's death his grief was evident.

A friend of Mr. Daugherty for years, Mr. Smith also was an intimate acquaintance of President and Mrs. Harding. He frequently was a white house guest at informal social affairs and was in the party that travelled with Mr. Harding shortly before his inauguration.

SAY GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP AIM OF PROGRESSIVES

Committee of Rail Executives Make Statement Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—Government ownership was declared today by a committee of western railroad presidents composed of the heads of six large systems to be the real purpose behind the conference on valuation held here last week by the so-called progressive group.

The statement, signed by S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western; Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central; H. E. Bryant, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; W. H. Finley, president of the Chicago & Northwestern; and J. E. Gorman, president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, declared the real purpose of the conference was to make successful private management impossible and government ownership unavoidable.

The six rail executives declared this was but part of a concerted plan to discourage capital from the rail field, hamper private ownership and operation, and allow government ownership an inning.

BRITISH REPLY IS GIVEN TO SOVIETS

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, May 30.—A British memorandum dealing with Russia's last reply to Lord Curzon's note was communicated to Leonid Urassin, the Bolshevik representative here yesterday, according to the Daily Herald. It accepts with slight reservations, Russia's offer regarding the payment of compensation for the security of British trawlers, for the execution of Charles Dawson, and the arrest and detention of Mrs. Stan Harding, a newspaper correspondent, and for the withdrawal of the ten Weinstein notes written in reply to the British protest over the prosecution of church officials, which notes Great Britain considered offensive.

It is asserted that the memorandum also tacitly abandons the charge that the soviet is financing British communists, but declares the Russian reply with respect to Russian propaganda in Asia is unsatisfactory and demands that the Russian representative in Tashkent and Kabul shall be withdrawn.

According to the Daily Herald the memorandum affirms Great Britain's willingness to take the initiative in calling an international conference to settle the question of the extent of territorial waters.

ELECTED EDITOR OF DAILY NORTHWESTERN

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—J. W. Tawney of Winona, Minn., has been elected editor-in-chief of the Daily Northwestern Student publication at Northwestern University for the school year 1923-24, it was announced today. John D. Tomlinson of Evanston, Ill., was elected business manager.

Elections are made by the board of student publications composed of faculty and student representatives and are on the basis of service on the publication and experience.

FOUR KILLED AT GRADE CROSSING

(By The Associated Press)
Los Angeles, Cal., May 30.—W. A. Decker and three other persons, two of them women, were killed here late today when the automobile in which they were riding was hit by a Pacific Electric Interurban car on Pico Boulevard at the outskirts of the city.

The other victims could not be identified at the scene of the accident.

STARS AND BARS CAUSE TROUBLE

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—Twenty-four veterans of the war between the states refused to march in a joint Memorial Day parade here today when the chairman of the committee on arrangements a federal veteran refused them permission to carry the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy at the head of their column.

FIRST COURT OF SEASON GIVEN BY KING AND QUEEN

Illinois Woman Among the Americans Introduced at Court

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, May 30.—King George and Queen Mary tonight held the first court of the season. It was a brilliant function, but there still was a lacking in the pre-war luxury in the gowns of the women. For the first time debutantes were permitted to wear colored frocks. The hues most favored were rose pink and forget-me-not blue.

There were seven hundred guests. The royal circle was rather small owing to illness and other causes. The absentees included the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, Viscount Lascelles, and Princess Mary and Princess Christian. The latter is dangerously ill from a heart attack following influenza. Mrs. Post Wheeler, wife of the charge d'affaires of the American embassy introduced the Americans present to the king and queen. She wore a striking gown with a train of old Venetian point lace.

The Americans presented included Mrs. Ira C. Copley, wife of former Representative Copley of Illinois.

MANY WITNESSES TELL HOW THEY INVESTED MONEY

Lee Oil Company Promised to Pay 6 for 1 in 30 Days

(By The Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Texas, May 30.—That he had invested approximately $10,000 in the three promotion companies of the General Lee interests, expecting to receive six for one within thirty days but for which he received nothing, was the testimony of L. C. Smith of Williamsport, Pa., in the trial of the Lee interests here today.

Another witness, Fred Bersitsoff of Millstadt, Ill., also told from the witness stand how he invested $1,100 in the Third Lee company, the General Lee Development interests, expecting to receive six for one in thirty days, but for which he received nothing.

Numerous other witnesses put on the stand by the government testified how they had invested lesser amounts in the General Lee company on alleged false promises of big dividends.

THREE PERSONS ARE OVERCOME BY HEAT

(By The Associated Press)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 30.—Three persons were overcome by heat here this afternoon. H. S. Kendall, 80, suffered internal injuries when he collapsed in the street and his condition was reported as serious tonight. M. L. Sosin, 40, was prostrated while marching in a Memorial Day parade. The third victim sustained a deep cut in his throat when he fell. Highest temperature for the day was 85 degrees.

NEGRO SOLDIER GETS APPOINTMENT

(By The Associated Press)
Spokane, Wash., May 30.—Moody Staten, a negro who held the rank of captain in the American Expeditionary Forces in France during the world war to day received appointment from the secretary of state to the Liberian army. The Liberian government, a communication from the secretary of state explained, had requested assignment of an American officer who could assume command of the Liberian army.

Staten said he will sail for Liberia June 9.

FRIENDS AND FOES OF BILL DESCEND ON ALBANY

Albany, N. Y., May 30.—(By The A. P.)—Friends and foes of the Mullin-Gage state prohibition enforcement act descended on Albany tonight ready to pound Governor Smith at a public hearing tomorrow with last minute arguments why he should and why he should not sign the legislature's bill for its repeal.

HOUSE ADDS MORE MILEAGE TO HARD ROADS BOND BILL

Estimated That Body Tacked on at Least 200 More Miles

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 30.—Two hundred miles of prospective hard roads were added to the senate $100,000,000 road bill in the house roads and bridges committee this afternoon thru adoption of thirty add amendments. This estimate of new routes is based on statements of house members who succeeded in putting over the changes and may be a little conservative.

Representatives of both parties and from districts as far north as Lake county and as far south as Jefferson flocked to the committee room to get additional mileage for their districts. When the committee adjourned at 4 o'clock for the hour session there were many more amendments to be considered at the next meeting tomorrow afternoon.

After the bill was introduced in the senate 400 miles of new routes were added and it is believed in some quarters that the house will follow suit.

Staunch friends of the measure are opposing amendments which necessarily will increase the cost of this new hard road system. Chairman Frank McCarthy called attention of his associates to the fact that the bill is now "the property of this committee" and it has a right to change it as it will, the same as any other.

"I can go thru this bill and pick out 1,500 miles of routes that shouldn't be there," he said, "and I want to remind you that we're here to take out routes as well as put them in."

Remarking that the senate had held the road bill three months before it came to the house, Mr. McCarthy declared that "this house has received a dirty deal in the matter."

"We have hardly enough time to consider it properly." Only two amendments were submitted that cut off mileage.

The largest amendment was one by Representative L. F. Arnold, Democrat, Newton, for 60 miles in Richland and Wayne counties in a district where Mr. Arnold said, transportation facilities are so poor that outside doctors refuse to treat the dying.

The house passed tonight two fish and game committee bills one for conservation of wild animals and the other for promotion of the state's fishing interests. The first was passed with little opposition but the vote on the second was 84 to 39, many members objecting to the fifty cent annual license fee for adults. From March 1 to July 15 is to be a closed season on black bass under the bill and no black bass less than ten inches long may be caught at any time in the year.

On motion of Representative Browne, Democrat, Ottawa, the house struck the enacting clause from the revenue committee bill amending the property assessment law. Mr. Browne said that since it abolished the office of township assessor it tended to foster centralization in the county.

SHOOTING CAUSES PANIC IN THEATER

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 30.—Exit space was at a premium tonight in a South State street theatre when patrons, becoming frightened when three shots were fired at Samuel Isaacson, an employe, by a man engaged because he was told to leave, rushed over seats and thru aisles for the doorways.

Three men in the audience were struck by the bullets but no one was injured seriously. George Pollack, struck in the side by one of the bullets, sat for an hour watching the show before he was aware he was injured. When he felt blood he ran several blocks to a police station and demanded first aid.

Is soul?—Matt. 16:26.
After all, the most natural beauty in the world is honesty and moral truth; for the beauty is truth—Shaftebury.

The rest of the country is waiting to see whether Florida will expect one man to take the blame and the punishment for a system which has been maintained there for years and years. And Florida is not the only Southern state where the convict-leasing system is still in vogue.

On March 31, American locomotive manufacturers had unfilled orders for 2,214 engines all but 102 of which were for domestic use. The railroads are making extraordinary efforts to prepare for the heavy traffic demands of the summer and fall. The stories of natural prosperity are not propaganda, but solid fact, and the rail managers are convinced that the roads will be faced with the greatest volume of business in their career.

WAR DAMAGE CLAIMS

The bill for nearly $1,500,000,000 of war claims presented to Germany now goes to the mixed claims commission. This body consists, at Germany's suggestion, of two American and one German. It need not be inferred that all the American claims will necessarily be granted because the American commissioners have power to grant them. Such an unusual exhibition of confidence on the part of a beaten enemy will not be abused. Many of the claims are rather flimsy and many others will need scaling down. The final total may be reduced to $1,000,000,000.

The government claim for the largest chunk, $366,000,000, mainly for the army of occupation, is least likely to be cut since Germany wanted that army on the Rhine after the armistice in preference to allied troops, and agreed to pay for it. The claims of the Lusitania victims will call for generous handling, and yet may stand some trimming. Losses caused by submarines operating contrary to the laws of legitimate warfare will probably meet sympathetic treatment. Claims for infringed patents and war risks premiums may be more doubtful.

One interesting feature is the great number of claims submitted by German-Americans for the loss of property in Germany. Among these claimants is George Sylvester Viereck, who edited "The Fatherland" during the war and was outspoken in his defense of Germany. He wants $13,000.

THE VANISHED ISLAND

If persistent reports of the disappearance of Easter Island are confirmed, a new mystery is added to one of the biggest mysteries in the world.

When this little island was discovered, two centuries ago, midway between Chile and the main group of South Sea Islands, it was inhabited by a remarkable group of statues. There were hundreds of them, mostly human figures, portraying an unknown race, carved of solid volcanic rock, many of them 70 feet or more in height and buried to a considerable depth in the earth. Scientists studied them in vain. It was impossible to determine their age or their purpose, or by what people they were erected.

The tradition is that the island, shortly before its discovery, had risen from the sea to which it now seems to have returned. Volcanic islands often do queer things, so those statues may represent a highly developed race which was destroyed untold thousands of years ago. For all anyone knows, Easter Island may have been the highest mountain peak of a submerged continent. There are traditions of a Pacific continent, called Lemuria, comparable to the lost Atlantis told of by Plato.

Such changes are an old story to this old earth. Earth history is one long record, as geology shows, of land emerging and submerging, of mountains and islands and continents rising and falling, and the process is still going on. Whenever a salt bed is found in drilling for minerals, there is evidence of an ancient sea. All land and all life seem to have come from the sea originally, and may return to it in the end, like Easter Island and its secrets.

FAMOUS SALESMEN

Napoleon in his youth was a book salesman. Early in his career he found his lieutenant's pay too meager.

To provide himself with extra money he canvassed from house to house, taking orders for a book, "L'Histoire de la Revolution."

When you visit the Louvre in Paris, make inquiries and you will be shown Napoleon's book-selling outfit, including a list of with 249 names of subscribers who were induced to sign on the dotted line by Napoleon's eloquence.

You picture young Napoleon, slender, with burning eyes, knocking at a door in Paris. The housewife meets him with a scowl. Her poodle barks at the salesman destined to be the future master of Europe.

It was nearly as hard to sell some of those books as to win victories later on the battlefield. Napoleon made good as a salesman. He "had the stuff in him"—the fighting spirit.

George Washington was also a book salesman, canvassing from house to house, in his early days. At the 20 he sold a volume, Blyden's "American Savage." It cost him only $2 a copy and he sold it for $3. His sales, as recorded in his diary, totaled over 500 copies.

Washington had to make his own deliveries, galloping long distances with the books in his saddle-bags.

For these salesmanship angles on Napoleon and Washington, we are indebted to a speech by R. S. Branch of Chicago, before a convention of subscription book publishers.

All of us should find new courage and inspiration as we ponder these two famous book agents. Washington was an aristocrat, but he did not think the work beneath him. Napoleon was a genius, with ambitions for world power, but he was sensible enough to make the most of every opportunity for advancement, however small, as it came.

Future Napoleons and Georges Washingtons, now in 1923, are also struggling for a start—selling books, keeping accounts, studying at nights—in short, toiling at the humble tasks of life. Whether we later will have a bigger job to handle depends to large extent on how well we handle the present job.

Every job can be made a stepping-stone to better things.

TOURISTS STOP HERE

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winn and K. S. Osborn who is a brother of Mrs. Winn are in the city enroute from Indianapolis Indiana to Denver Colorado.

The party have been living in Indianapolis for about two years and are motoring through to their former home in Denver where they will reside in the future. They stated that the roads from Dawson into Springfield are in a very bad condition at present for motorists. MRS. E. C. LAMBERT IS HOME FROM ABROAD

Spent Ten Months in European Travel and With Dr. and Mrs. Julian Wadsworth in Chateau Thierry.

Mrs. E. C. Lambert is again in the city after an extended absence, having arrived from Chicago last night after a ten months tour of Europe. Mrs. Lambert sailed last June with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Clifford, and two children of the latter. The early part of the period abroad was spent in England and Scotland, the travelers later spending considerable time in various French cities and also a brief period in Switzerland.

Mrs. Lambert's sister, Mrs. John D. Waller and the latter's daughter, Miss Katherine of Oak Park, were also members of the party. The two sisters had a very delightful visit with a third sister, Mrs. Julian Wadsworth, whose husband, Dr. Julian Wadsworth is in charge of the Methodist Memorial at Chateau Thierry. From Chateau Thierry Mrs. Lambert traveled alone, the others in the party remaining for a longer visit there. Mrs. Waller and daughter will return to the United States about the middle of July, while Mrs. Clifford and children will remain in France until September 1.

Mrs. Lambert found the homeward voyage a very pleasant one, encountering a calm sea practically all the way over. Soon after leaving Cherbourg she was very much interested in receiving a radio message from Colonel Edward Clifford, who was on board a steamer enroute to Mrs. Lambert landed at New York two weeks ago. She visited friends in Long Island for a number of days and called upon various alumni of Illinois Woman's college in New York, Brooklyn and Yonkers. She then proceeded to Chicago for a brief stay and made several stops between Chicago and this city in the interest of the college.

The trip was a very delightful one and Mrs. Lambert returns greatly refreshed in mind and body. Her return was hastened somewhat because of her desire to be here for the commencement program at the college.

Telephone Talk No. 19

"There is a Chance for Error in Every Guess"

The telephone number of a business house is 1698. A residence subscriber whose number was 1698 requested us to change his number. He complained that he was called a score of times a day by people wanting the business house.

The explanation is that many people guessed at the number, and guessed wrong, asking the operator for 1698 instead of 1698.

It is easy to be wrong when you guess, and unfortunately the person called in error generally blames the service.

Next to guessing as a fruitful source of unsatisfactory telephone service is placing of undue faith in the correctness of the number on an old card, letterhead or list tacked to the wall. Use instead the Ready Reference Register on the inside front cover of the directory.

But better still, in a telephone system where numbers are constantly changing, one should always make sure of the correct prefix and number by consulting the telephone directory before calling.

It is the quickest and surest way to get the right number.

Dies—Other Winchester News

Winchester, May 30.—A. C. Palmer, for many years a resident of Jacksonville, more recently of East St. Louis, died at his home near Winchester this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock, of cerebral hemorrhage. The deceased was born in the Sulphur Springs neighborhood March 8, 1849, the only son of Michael and Sarah Hope Palmer. Early in life he was united in marriage with Margaret Magill who preceded him in death in 1888. Some years later he was married to Agnes Simpson of Winchester who, with the following children, survive: Mrs. Ethel Rynders of Wichita, Kans.; Earl, of San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. Ella Marenness of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Abbie Spillman of Jacksonville, Ill.; Raymond, of Chicago, and Rose of East St. Louis, Albert, Hattie and Warren died in infancy. Deceased is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Ursula Conlee of Sulphur Springs, and the following half-brothers and sisters: Rev. Andl Conlee of Roodhouse, Ill.; Alva Conlee, also of Roodhouse; Mrs. Ellen Spahnower of Pisgah. Also fourteen grandchildren. A. C. Palmer was widely known in both Morgan and Scott counties, and no business man of Winchester or East St. Louis was held in higher esteem by all who knew him.

Funeral will be held at the Christian church in Winchester Friday, June 1st at 2 P. M., in charge of Rev. Elmo. Interment in the Winchester cemetery. The Memorial Day program was carried out here this afternoon according to schedule. The unveiling of the boulder in honor of Abraham Lincoln proved an impressive ceremony. The large rock has been placed near the center of the park, and on it are two bronze tablets, the larger of which bears the following inscription:

"In the upper room of the old courthouse in August, 1854, Abraham Lincoln delivered his first speech on the Kansas-Nebraska question." The smaller bronze tablet bears this inscription: "Erected by the Literary and Civic department of the Winchester Woman's club."

In addition to the regular program, James Gale of Galesburg and J. H. Coates of St. Louis, both former Winchester residents and veterans of the Civil War, were called upon for short talks.

Following the service in the park, the procession formed and marched to the cemetery, led by the Winchester band. The school children were in line and carried flowers. They assisted in decorating the graves of the soldiers.

Mrs. Bertha Rutschke of White Hall and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Weirhauser and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Coates, all of St. Louis, visited friends and relatives here Wednesday.

Mrs. William Wainwright and family of Jacksonville visited relatives here Wednesday. C. N. Priest and family of Jacksonville visited Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sappington here.

Miss Nannie Jackson, a nurse at Jacksonville, spent a few days here this week visiting home folks.

Mrs. Minerva Wills, who resides three miles west of Bluffs, died at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at Our Savior's hospital in Jacksonville. She was 65 years, 1 month and 21 days of age. The remains were removed to the Sappington undertaking parlors in Winchester and later taken to the Wills home, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

James Gale of Galesburg, has been visiting relatives in Winchester this week.

Rev. W. R. Johnson went to Greenfield Wednesday, where he delivered a Memorial Day address. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Johnson and the rest of the family.

Mrs. Alonzo Ellis of White Hall visited relatives here Wednesday.

This is to people who are missing benefits which millions now enjoy. There is a new way of doing teeth cleaning. It is used by careful people of some 50 nations, largely by dental device.

It means whiter, prettier teeth, better tooth protection. It means fighting the teeth's enemies more effectively. Your dealer will give you a ten-day test. Go ask him for it. Test this new method now.

Don't leave that film

You can feel on your teeth a viscous film. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush, used in old ways, has left much of it intact. That's why you had dingy teeth, decay and other troubles. Stains, etc., discolor film. Then it forms cloudy Tartar is based on film. That is why tooth loss.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. That was almost universal. Germs breed by millions in film. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And that became alarmingly common.

Their greatest enemy

Film was the teeth's chief enemy. Very few escaped harm. So dental science long sought ways to fight it. Eventually two ways were found. One acts to dissolve film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was perfected to apply even twice a day. That tooth paste is called Pepsodent. Now it has come into world-wide use, largely on dental advice.

New in several ways

Pepsodent brings other new effects which research owes essential. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the use of tooth decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids. Old-time tooth pastes brought just opposite effects. They reduced these natural tooth-protecting agents.

Pepsodent PAT. OFF. REG. U.S.

The New-Day Dentifrice

Scientific tooth paste based on modern research, free from harmful grit. Now advised by dentists the world over, because of its unique effects.

Y. M. C. A. WORK WILL BE RESUMED HERE

Directors Plan to Employ Experienced Secretary—Will Prepare for New Building Campaign at Future Date.

Directors of the Y. M. C. A. have practically determined upon the policy of employing an all time secretary and the position has been offered to a man recommended by the state organization. It is the thought of the directors that if a modern Y. M. C. A. is erected here in the course of the next year or two, there must be preliminary work done in emphasizing the need and in showing the work that can be accomplished.

The directors believe that the only way this can be done is thru an active secretary, carrying on the work as well as possible without a gymnasium, swimming pool, assembly room, library and the other special attractions that have place in a complete building.

The Y. M. C. A. now has rooms on the ground floor of the Cherry apartment building and when a new secretary comes, these quarters or others will be utilized for the work. If a secretary is secured the directors are fully determined that he must be a man of large and successful experience in the work.

H. H. BANCROFT HEARD AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Patriotic Service Held at Chapel Hour Wednesday Morning.

At Illinois college yesterday morning a memorial service was held at the chapel hour. President Rammelkamp introduced as the speaker of the day H. H. Bancroft, alumnus and trustee. Mr. Bancroft is especially well versed in American history and familiar with the phases of development that have made for patriotism. He suggested that the several wars in which the U. S. has engaged have been wars of necessity and that the spirit of America today has been born from these struggles.

In language that made deep impression upon his student hearers, Mr. Bancroft paid tribute to those men who have made great sacrifices for their country, some of whom laid down their lives on the altar of patriotism and others who have borne scars throughout all the years since their time of war service.

The address throughout was one which impressed the importance of Memorial Day and the duty of observance.

SPECIAL PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT ROODHOUSE

Patriotic and Fraternal Organizations Joined in Fitting Observance of the Day.

Roodhouse, Ill. May 30.—Memorial Day services were held here with a very large company in attendance. Fraternal orders joined with veterans organizations in making the day memorable. H. K. Hieher of Carrollton was the chairman of the day and introduced the several speakers, and in his introductory remarks emphasized the appropriateness of pausing at least once each year to pay special honor to the memory of those who have been in service of their country and have passed on.

The invocation was by Rev. J. F. Brinkman, pastor of the Baptist church. Ira Brown of Roodhouse was the spokesman for the American Legion and made appropriate reference to the service rendered by American soldiers both those who were overseas and those who did not get beyond the camps of the U. S.

John J. Reeve of Jacksonville past grand chancellor of the state represented the Pythian order. Mr. Reeve centered his thoughts about the sentiment: "Cheers for the living and tears for the dead," pointing to some of the lessons that war has taught and declaring that if the right ideals of American life are sustained that war heroes will not have died in vain.

W. A. Hubbard, prominent in L. O. O. F. circles spoke eloquently of the debt the present owes the past. The service was one of the most impressive ever held in Roodhouse.

"SOULS FOR SALE" AT GRAND TODAY

Rupert Hughes Photo Play Gives Intimate and Accurate Story of Hollywood Life.

Rupert Hughes new photoplay "Souls for Sale" which comes to the "Grand today for the remainder of the week pictures most vividly the life of motion picture actors in famous Hollywood. The story was written by Jim Tully author of "Emmett Lawler."

It was Rupert Hughes whose keen eyes beheld the sacrifices made by picture players with ideals. It was the heroine in his novel, "Souls for Sale," which has now been screened under the direction of Mr. Hughes, who wanted to "sell her soul" for a high ideal.

And Hollywood has many such young people who regard their calling as the most noble in the world. And it was Rupert Hughes, long in touch with the films, who has seen the humor, the pity, the irony and the paths of motion picture life. And after writing the book, he has now brought all the training of his powerful mind to the filming of it. Having still the same absorbing and passionate interest in his subject, he has succeeded in breathing the breath of life into the film.

Hollywood was about twenty-five years old when the first pioneer of the picture arrived. And by the word of an unknown man's mouth, the great industry was established in Hollywood. . . . Three of the pioneers were on a train bound westward about a dozen years ago. The unknown man told them that Hollywood was a "pretty place." The man listened and remembered. They left the station in Los Angeles and drove directly to Hollywood. Men of quick decision, they leased a one time tavern and a barn at the corner of Sunset and Gower. It was from this humble beginning that Hollywood grew. And from a city of not more than 10,000 persons a dozen years ago, the city has grown until it now numbers 100,000 or more.

TAKE PICTURES OF CITY'S BEAUTY PLACES

A committee composed of Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel, Miss Georgia Fairbank, L. O. Vaught, C. H. Rammelkamp and H. C. Welsh spent part of Wednesday taking snapshots of views in Nichols Park and other places in this vicinity to be used in a contest known as the Beauty Spots in Illinois contest which is being sponsored by the Art Extension Society of the University of Illinois in which contest a total of 298 prizes will be offered. These are test pictures and if any are considered satisfactory a professional photographer will be engaged to retake the views.

The winning photos are to be enlarged and sent to the University for exhibition and for loaning to other universities for exhibition purposes.

TO DISCUSS C. P. & ST. L. PLANS AT LUNCHEON

Newspaper Men Invited to Meet With Committee in Springfield Monday—Road Must be Saved.

At a meeting in Peoria recently a committee was appointed in the hope that some plan may be worked out for the revitalizing of the C. P. and St. L. railroad. John J. Reeve of this city is one of the committee.

Announcements have just been sent out by Thomas Reese of the Illinois State Register and S. Leigh Call of the Illinois State Journal asking representatives of newspapers at all points touched by the C. P. and St. L. to meet with the committee in Springfield next Monday at luncheon.

The company will assemble at the Sangamo club and after the luncheon the committee will explain the situation and offer some suggestions. It is hoped that the newspaper representatives will have something of value to offer and that a coherent plan may be worked out for keeping this railroad in operation.

The expectation is that every person invited to the luncheon and conference will attend since the subject for discussion is of such vital importance to the cities and towns touched by the C. P. and St. L. road.

Tommy Milton Wins 500 Mile Automobile Race at Indianapolis

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30.—Tommy Milton of St. Paul, Minn., achieved the ambition of his brilliant racing career today, when for the second time he won the 500 mile automobile race over the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, repeating his victory of 1921 before a crowd of 150,000 spectators. It was the greatest throng that ever witnessed a sporting event in America.

Milton's time for the 500 miles was 5:28:06.27, giving him an average speed of 91.4 miles an hour, as compared with the record-breaking speed of 94.48 made a year ago. Harry Hartz of Los Angeles, who finished second in the 1922 race, was five miles behind Milton, while Jimmy Murphy, winner of the 1922 race, was third, about 13 miles behind Hartz. Hartz's time was 5:33:05.90 for an average of 90.06 miles an hour.

Murphy finished in 5:40:36.64 for an average speed of 88.08 miles an hour.

Fourth place honors went to the veteran Earl Cooper, while L. L. Corum of Indianapolis furnished one of the mechanical surprises of the race by piloting a specially built "giver" into fifth place. Frank Elliott, a California driver, finished sixth and Eddie Hearne, seventh. Max Sadler, one of the three German entries, was eighth, Prince DeCystria, a French entry was ninth, Phil Shafer, driving an Indianapolis machine was tenth. Christian Werner, another of the German entries finished eleventh just outside of the prize money.

Of the twenty-four cars that reared away in a belching cloud of smoke at the start only eleven survived the grueling test of speed and endurance. Eight of the survivors were American creations, two were German and one was French. Four of the French machines were eliminated because of motor trouble and the third German entry was wrecked in a smash-up.

Milton collected about $35,000 as his reward for victory. Howard Wilcox, an Indianapolis driver shared in Milton's triumph for after his own car was eliminated, he relieved Milton, whose hands were blistered as a result of gripping the wheel.

Wilcox drove 150 miles of the race. The first 50 miles of the grind was a sawsaw affair between Milton, Murphy and Hartz, first one going into the lead and then the other. When Milton had covered 150 miles however, he was firmly entrenched in first place and held it until the finish except for a few minutes around the 250 mile mark when he lost it to Hartz by stopping at the pits for fuel.

Furnishes Thrills
Murphy furnished the race fans with thrill after thrill, mile after mile, first holding first, some times second, third, fourth and fifth. He showed rare bursts of speed which undoubtedly on the stretches were better than 100 miles an hour.

The youthful Californian, however, suffered slight motor trouble and at one time was forced to drop back to ninth place. He gained steadily as he reeled off the miles, finally pushing his car into third place, retaining the position to the finish.

The race resulted in two serious accidents in which three school boy spectators from Lafayette, Ind., were injured, one perhaps gravely. Christian Lautenschlager, a German entry crashed into a concrete retaining wall on his fifteenth lap but escaped death although his machine was wrecked. Jacob Krauss, his mechanic, was taken to the field hospital, but his injuries were not as serious as first reported. Krauss was the only

PHILLIES TAKE TWO FROM BRAVES

BOSTON, May 30.—Philadelphia took both the morning and afternoon games from Boston today. The 5 to 3 morning game was won in the eleventh inning on a safe hit by Milton, a single by Mogan and Mighstone's triple. In the afternoon game Winert pitched his second win of the series this time 6 to 1 and allowed but seven hits.

MILTON PREDICTS VICTORY BACK IN 1909
St. Paul, May 30.—Back in 1909, a 16 year old St. Paul boy with a penchant for automobiles saw the first Indianapolis Speedway classic and as the winner flashed over the line, turned to his brother and two other youthful "pals" and said:
"I'll win this race some day."
His prophecy came true in 1921 when Tommy Milton, grown from the youthful spectator to a famous automobile racer, won the Indianapolis classic. His second victory today in the same event was more than ever his ambitious vision foretold.

CHICK EVANS PLAYS ON MUNICIPAL LINKS

Famous Golfer Turns in 72 for 18 Holes—Paired with Leo Flood He Loses Match to Knight and Keywood

"Chick" Evans, the amateur golf champion of America, made the lowest score in the exhibition match game on the municipal links at Nichols park yesterday afternoon, making the eighteen holes in seventy-two strokes and beating his nearest opponent, George Knight, the Springfield professional, by three strokes. Five to eight hundred people followed the players around the course for the first nine holes, and a large number remained on the links until the conclusion of the match.

Although Evans made the lowest score, he and his partner, Leo Flood, the local amateur champion, lost the match against George Knight and Jack Keywood. Flood's score was 89, Keywood's 81, and Knight's 75. Flood played his best game in the first half of the match. At No. 3 hole he placed his ball on the green with the drive from a distance of 193 yards, making the hole in three strokes. He also made No. 7 hole in three strokes. When the first nine holes were ended, Flood had only forty strokes totaled against him, while Keywood had forty-three. Knight and Evans were only one stroke apart, Evans having 27 and Knight 38.

Evans played a consistent game throughout the match, making a number of the holes in three strokes, and never using more than five strokes for a hole. The famous golfer arrived here from Hillsboro about 1:15 yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by three auto loads of Hillsboro citizens, who came to see the match. The game which was scheduled for that city Tuesday had to be abandoned on account of rain, which flooded a portion of the links. After luncheon at the Peacock Inn, the officials of the local association, accompanied by the champion and his party, went to the park, where the match started about 3 o'clock. A large number of golfers from Springfield and other nearby towns were on hand to witness the play.

Before the opening of the match, F. E. Farrell, president of the local association, introduced the players to the crowd. The greens and runways were in good condition. The association is well pleased with the results of the exhibition and it is hoped that other matches of like character can be held from time to time during the season. In fact some have already been scheduled.

RIOT MEANS END OF BOXING MATCHES

CHICAGO, May 30.—Although Mayor William E. Dever refused today to confirm reports that he would permit no more boxing matches in Chicago, close friends of the mayor predicted that the riot which followed a boxing exhibition last night would mean the end of such bouts in Chicago.

The boxing show ended in a riot when Ritchie Mitchell, brother of Pinkie Mitchell attacked Referee Dave Miller after Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion had scored a technical knockout over Pinkie Mitchell in the tenth round.

It became known today that Mayor Dever had issued an order a week ago to Chief of Police Collins directing that no permits for boxing should be issued. The order was not enforced against last night's show however, because of the fact that returns were to go to charity.

Jim Mullen, promoter of the fight did not resort to the usual injunction method to ward off police interference but submitted to technical arrest and was released on bond within the ring so that the present Illinois law may be tested thru the courts. From Springfield today came reports that if the boxing bill which was passed by the house yesterday ever had a chance in the senate that chance was eliminated by last night's riot. One senate leader who had not taken a definite stand on the bill said today that he thought that "the boxing game is done." He said that he would not vote for the bill either at this or at the next session of the legislature.

CHICAGO BROKE EVEN WITH CLEVELAND

Indians Won Morning Game and White Sox Came Back and Took Afternoon Contest—Leverette Was in Fine Form

CHICAGO, May 30.—Chicago hit Uhle and Edwards hard today and defeated Cleveland 7 to 2, thereby getting an even break on the holiday bills, the Indians having won the morning game seven to 0.

"Dixie" Leverette was in fine form and held the visitors to six hits until the last inning while Uhle suffered three attacks by the White Sox and Edwards was hit hard in one inning.

Pennsylvania Hard Coal For 1923

The eastern states have just gone through their greatest coal shortage. There is no assurance that the spring and summer tonnage will ever get caught up with the demand in 1923.

On September 1st the Present Mine Wage Scale on Hard Coal Expires

The hard coal miners want more money. Their low day pay scale is about $5.00. The low day scale for soft coal miners is about $7.50. This is what the hard coal miners are asking for. It looks like more money and higher priced coal or a strike. Take your pick and take your chances.

Get Your Hard Coal Early and You Are Safe. Prices will not change much this year. The most important factor now in anthracite is that of getting it. It will be impossible to make up the lost tonnage and the east will be given the preference. So the wise householder will get his coal now while it can be obtained.

FORMER A. P. MAN IN CAMP AT PARK

Family Awaits Daughter Who is Student at School for Deaf—Named Children in Honor of Texas Governor.

Albert A. Steele, a former Associated Press operator and who has been an operator on the Board of Trade in Chicago for the past six years is camping at Nichols Park for a few days accompanied by his wife and son Ura B. Steele, and will later motor to Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Steele will enter business for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele have a daughter Miss Ima who is a student at the School for the Deaf and after her school is out she will accompany them to Texas. Mr. Steele is a very warm admirer of former Governor Hogg of Texas who had two children which he very facetiously named Ima Hogg and Ura Hogg, and Mr. Steele followed suit in the naming of his children.

The party came from Chicago via Bloomington and Decatur and report that they found the roads very bad just west of Decatur.

Mr. Steele took occasion to pay the Illinois School for the Deaf a very high compliment saying that in six years in a deaf school in another state his daughter could only complete the third grade, while in Jacksonville she has been able to complete four grades in three years and receive unusually high grades in all of her studies. He ended up by saying that although Illinois had the reputation of having the poorest roads in the United States, no state could surpass her in educational opportunities.

Memorial Day In Jacksonville

Was Observed with Fitting Ceremonies—Exercises at Diamond Grove and Calvary in the Morning—Jacksonville Cemetery in Afternoon

Memorial Day which broke fair and lovely yesterday was almost universally observed in Jacksonville. The afternoon parade started about 1:30 o'clock from the intersection of Church and State streets and the people lined both sides of the streets almost to the railroad crossing.

The order of parade is given below:

Grand marshal and assistants.
Platoon of police.
Community band.
Howitzer company.

Veterans of the G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps in autos.

Colored bugle and drum corps.
Spanish War veterans.
American Legion.

State Hospital band.
Vocational training men.
Service Star Legion.

Boy Scouts.
Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts from the School for the Deaf.

Members of the D. A. R. and others in autos.

On arrival at East Cemetery where another immense crowd was waiting the program as originally published was carried out. Rev. W. H. Marbach, himself a veteran, delivered the address in his usual finished manner. Extracts from his stirring address are given below:

"This day is first and foremost a day of 'Memorial.' With memories that bless and burn, as comrades of friends and relatives, patriots and citizens we stand here to salute the men who helped buy the price of our liberty with their life blood. We are here as those determined that these whose silent tents are spread on fame's eternal camping ground shall not be forgotten.

"This is not a day of recreation or a holiday in the ordinary sense of the word. It is not a popular day with many, except as it gives another day off from accustomed labor. It is primarily a day when we pause to pay tribute to men who by their sufferings and sacrifices laid down their lives on their country's altar.

"It is a day when we recall the past, aware of the fact that the roots of present prosperity, freedom and strength lie deep in the past. We are here as beneficiaries sharing untold benefits because of the price these men paid or were willing to pay. Whether it be the boys of '65 or '98 or '18 we are debtors to them. And it is never more than common decency to pay one's debts. The least we as American people can do is to pause for a few minutes and 'remember'.

"Then, in the second place, this is a day of 'Decoration.' Some of the sleeping soldiers have been decorated by the highest human authorities in the world. Distinguished service crosses, medals, commendations and honors of various kinds have been given to some of these men. Today, for buck private or commanding officer, for rich or poor, regardless of creed, color or condition we strew flowers upon their graves. The great silent Commoner we call death together with the verdict of time has taught us that their work was one. Whether at Gettysburg or at San Juan Hill or at Chateau Thierry, as privates or generals, they were one in the spirit of their sacrifice. So, with the symbol of affection beauty and devotion we decorate their graves. Thoughtful and kindly disposed persons have brought these flowers to us knowing that the results of their toil and culture of the flowers would well be honored by the decoration of these graves. 'Say it with flowers' is the mute but beautiful service of this day.

Day of Coronation
But this day is something more than a Memorial or a Decoration Day. It is a day of 'Coronation.' It will be a sad day for us if this day is ever looked upon as a day of lamentation and weeping. Then we had better cease to observe it. If it is not a day of triumph and coronation then we are not playing fair with the departed. In this connection I always think of an episode in the life of Jesus. He was dragging His cross to Calvary and certain women by the wayside wept. As He stumbled along He said to them: 'Weep not for me; weep for yourselves and your children.' Life is sweet and worth living, but be sure of it, we are not up on the highest levels if we think we are better off than they who gave their lives for their country. This is not a day for crepe and for crowns. Let us think not in terms of loss but of gain, not of demotion but promotion.

Finally, this is a day of 'Dedication.' Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg address in the ringing word with which this day must close 'That these have not died in vain. Let us dedicate. . . . We dare not break with them who died on Flanders Field or in the Philippines nor at Antietam. They shall not sleep if we break faith with them. So, then the call is one of challenge and cheer. These voiceless stones and these beautiful flowers together with the rifle salute and the tribute we pay today is not enough. We must and we will make this a place and a day of dedication, a time when we determine again to hold aloft the Stars and Stripes, to give our lives if need be that freedom, truth, and all that is noble and true be perpetuated on the earth, even though it

"Greater love hath no man than this that he lay down his life for his friends."

The Woman's Relief Corps assisted veterans by furnishing cars and in helping decorate the graves.

A very good delegation went out to Diamond Grove and Calvary cemeteries in the morning where the rituals of the G. A. R. and American Legion were carried out, along with addresses by Rev. C. D. Robertson, pastor of Centenary church and Very Rev. Dean Formaz.

By appointment of Commander John Minter, S. W. Nichols acted as commander at the two cemeteries. At Calvary cemetery Mr. Robertson said in part:

Rev. C. D. Robertson
There is no more important occasion in our land than this, surrounded as it is by most sacred associations and it is the duty of all to participate in it not so much for eulogy but as upholding the principles for which our country stands.

Heretofore we have associated the name of veterans of a war with elderly men—men who served in the trying times of the '60s, but now we have veterans who are yet mere boys, and all are entitled to the highest honor. Men are respected for what they stood for; devotion to principle and noble and lofty patriotism.

I say all are thus entitled to consideration. There was no such thing as draft in the civil or world war. Men were selected to fight the battles of their country and they did it well. I have no sympathy with those who sneer at any one who bore arms in the cause of his native land.

Our country never went to war for territory or selfish gain and she never was beaten in any conflict. How different the nations of Europe. Questions are never settled by the shedding of blood. Would that war could be made impossible. There is no place for it in a civilized land, and by the grace of God let us pray that there may be no more. Let us not forget the duty we owe these men. We garland their graves with flowers and in our hearts we cherish them ever in grateful and fond remembrance.

An American Legion squad then fired the salute and the ritual of that order was carried out also with a salute after which all repaired to Diamond Grove cemetery where the same program was carried out.

Dean Formaz
There Very Rev. Dean Formaz was the speaker, who said:

My Friends:
In all the wide stretches of this great land, there is not a citizen worthy of the name, who does not pause in solemn silence at the tremendous significance of Memorial Day. For this day commemorates the achievements of men who died in order that we might live; of men who sacrificed themselves that the inheritance of liberty and democracy might descend to us unimpaired, that we might be a great and abiding nation, joined, welded and fused into a federation of well-nigh incredible cohesion.

A great and an abiding nation in very truth! No hereditary ruler could longer hope here to dominate men by a so-called divine right, for his own advantage or on his sole responsibility. The power of the State now rested on the consent of the governed and every citizen was armed with the same irresistible weapon, the suffrage, and common manhood was its sole condition and guarantee.

Soldiers of the Republic! we honor today the memory of the men who ensured to us the possession of these inestimable privileges. They were of many roots, stocks of varied creeds and races. Black and brown, yellow, red and white Americans, pagans, Jews, Gentiles, believers and unbelievers, they gathered together beneath the flag that has never known defeat in the cause of humanity and justice. In the name of human freedom and democracy, they followed that sacred emblem. They served, suffered and died, that their blood might deepen the crimson stripes and their ideals of justice and of peace might make the white more brilliant and pure.

It is for us, who have survived to pledge ourselves anew that the memory of these men may not perish from the earth forever. It is our glorious right, to spend and be spent, even to the last, that liberty, justice and humanity, everywhere, may be safe, and that high above the battle-scarred face of the world, the flag of freedom may float triumphantly in the clear sunlight of a new, still telling of hope, still calling around the world for the oppressed and down-trodden to come and dwell in hope and peace in the land of freedom, our United States.

MATERIAL FOR PAVING
PLACED ON COLLEGE AVE.

Quite a bit of the curbing is now laid on the east end of College avenue and crushed rock and cinders have been dumped on the pavement as far east as Clay avenue, so from all appearances one would be led to believe that the paving will soon start in full swing.

INSPIRING MEMORIAL SERVICE AT ARCADIA

B. F. Lane Delivers Oration—Program Held at Church.

A crowd that more than filled Arcadia church assembled at that place yesterday afternoon to pay tribute to the dead and to listen to a stirring address delivered by B. F. Lane of Jacksonville, his subject being "The Real American."

Up until last year there has always been a successful celebration at Arcadia but last year no celebration was held so this year Harry E. Ogle took charge and organized committees who arranged the ceremonies in grand style.

In the cemetery are buried veterans of the Black Hawk, Mexican, Civil and World Wars and details from the G. A. R., the W. R. C. and the American Legion with their firing squad went from Jacksonville to perform their rituals at the cemetery after the exercises at the church.

The people of Arcadia ask that sincere thanks be extended to the above organizations for the splendid help they furnished in making the celebration a grand success.

At the church the following program was carried out:

Song—America.

Prayer—Miss Lora Petefish.

Song—"Marching through Georgia"—Congregation.

Reading, "Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg"—Miss Lilla Thompson.

Song, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean"—Congregation.

Address—B. F. Lane of Jacksonville.

Solo, "The song of the Defendants"—Miss Anna Dinwiddie.

Reading, "The Roll Call of the Deceased Comrades"—L. A. Barr.

Reading, "Our Honored Dead"—Miss Vina Logan.

Quartet, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground"—Mrs. Charles Brainer, Miss Letha Mason, Lloyd Ogle and Paul Ogle.

Solo, "The Perfect Day"—Miss Mary Rachel Thompson, accompanied by Mrs. Durrell Crum.

Closing Song, "Blest be the Tie That Binds"—Congregation.

At the close of the exercises it was unanimously decided that the ceremony be made an annual affair and that the end of the congregation selected a committee composed of Harry E. Ogle, Chairman, George Smith, Ellis Thompson, Edward Barr and H. W. Dinwiddie to manage the program for next year. One unusual feature of the affair was the abundance of flowers furnished for the decoration of the graves.

In Mr. Lane's address he traced the generations down from the original real Americans, the Cavaliers and Puritans and showed how by joining of the good qualities of these two classes the present high race of Americans was developed through the hardships of pioneering, and gave Lincoln as an example of one of the first and greatest Americans developed from this source. He gave an unusually fine word-picture of the Battle of Gettysburg, and also mentioned reminiscences connected with his personal friendship with Captain Harrison Dickson who offered the supreme sacrifice and in honor of whom the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post of Jacksonville is named. He finished his address by referring to the heroism displayed in the World War showing that the Real American spirit still exists.

VETERAN O. STATION AGENT PASSED AWAY
White Hall, May 30. — Announcement from Vermont, Illinois, this morning conveys intelligence of the death of E. R. Thomas, station agent for the Burlington at that point since December 1st, 1874, he being the oldest station agent on the Beardstown division. From December 1, 1874 until July 1, 1879, he served as agent-operator, and since the latter date he has served as agent. Previous to going to Vermont he was a switchman in the yards at Beardstown under the old Rockford management. His record is continuous. The strong affection for Mr. Thomas by the late J. D. Besler, formerly general manager of the Burlington, has always been a notable matter. Mr. Thomas was a victim of Bright's disease. His wife died about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Barber went yesterday with the E. C. Pateman family near Litchberry.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF NOTES

Tuesday afternoon Miss Daniels entertained the girls of the senior class at a dinner given at the Tea Tray. Following the dinner a social time was enjoyed.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening Misses Hasenstab and McDonald entertained the whole Senior class of both boys and girls at a light luncheon at the school, at which the class colors red and white were very tastefully arranged and the tables were decorated with neat place cards and the guests were also remembered with very appropriate favors. After the luncheon games of many kinds were enjoyed and all expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

The business forms class of the high school enjoyed a picnic Tuesday evening from 4 to 7, at Nichols Park where they enjoyed a luncheon and spent a delightful evening in charge of Miss Moores.

CLASS HELD PICNIC
Wednesday afternoon the Commercial Arithmetic class of the high school under the guidance of Miss Moores enjoyed themselves in various ways at Nichols Park from 2 to 5, and returned home feeling very willing for a rest after the strenuous sports of the afternoon.

Bulletin

June 1 marks the 25th year in business in our city of the ANDRE & ANDRE Store, and to properly mark this event, this firm proposes to show their appreciation by holding for 14 days their 25th Anniversary Celebration Sale, in reality a profit-sharing sale. Sale will start Friday morning, June 1st and continue thru Saturday, June 16. Every section of this establishment will offer extraordinary values. Not alone have they made radical reductions on merchandise bought earlier in the season, but they will sacrifice their profits on new purchases, bought at present market levels. It will pay you to come many miles to attend this event. Watch for Friday morning's ad. Souvenirs for our friends and customers.
